

A City Centre like no other

City Centre entertainment doesn't come any better or easier than in Milton Keynes

The centre of this vibrant city is simply like no other, with plenty of parking, shops, restaurants and bars, parkland, exhilarating sports, a theatre and a gallery.

And everything is within walking distance of each other, making Milton Keynes city centre one of the most accessible centres in the UK.

- thecentre:mk and Midsummer Place combine to make one of the largest covered shopping centres in Europe. The city centre alone has more than 400 shops
- Xscape, featuring some of the best and most diverse entertainment and leisure activities in the UK. Indoor skiing and snowboarding, indoor sky-diving, rock-climbing, a multiplex cinema, retail outlets, and numerous bars and restaurants
- At thehub:mk you'll find a mix of restaurants and coffee shops to enjoy a relaxing meal or meet friends for a quick bite to eat or a coffee
- As well as housing Milton Keynes Theatre and Gallery, the Theatre District offers a heady mix of dining experiences for that pre or post theatre meal as well as a great mix of bars and clubs
- Campbell Park is the city centre's very own 'Central Park', so close to the main shopping and entertainment. It provides a green oasis for residents and visitors alike

The city centre is just 5 minutes' drive from Junction 14 on the M1 and there are over 16,000 parking spaces waiting for you when you arrive. Milton Keynes Central railway station is a short walk from the main city centre area and regular bus services are also available.

The majority of the main city centre attractions are on one level meaning access is easy for all. In the city centre you can leave the car behind and explore the area on foot; Milton Keynes truly is a city for everyone
